Foodbank Tasmania

Frequently Asked Questions

1	What if our food delivery doesn't arrive or is late?	If your food delivery doesn't arrive by the date indicated by Foodbank Tasmania, please call your Foodbank Tasmania Coordinator as soon as possible. Please check you have received your delivery in full once it arrives.
2	What do we do if the food is damaged?	Very occasionally, food may get damaged in transit. If food is damaged or unsuitable on arrival, please contact your Foodbank Coordinator and advise us of items and quantities as soon as possible so replacement food can be provided.
3	Where can we source additional food to supplement the food supplied by Foodbank?	We recommend building relationships with local suppliers including bakeries and fruit shops. Some schools have arranged to have fruits, vegetables and wholegrain breads donated or have been offered a discounted rate by local businesses.
4	How can our staff encourage students to try the foods supplied?	We recommend leading by example. Encourage staff to join in. Their participation may encourage students to take part and increase their curiosity to try unfamiliar foods.
5	How can we vary the program?	Try featuring different foods on different days at Breakfast Club.

		For example: Warm Porridge Wednesdays, Muesli Mondays, Pancake Friday
6	Do we have to run our Breakfast Club every day?	Yes. The program is required to be run 5 days a week and be available to every single student.
7	Can Variety help us with volunteers?	Yes, we can help you with information, but we don't provide volunteers. We suggest reaching out to your broader school community, contacting local Rotary clubs and advertising on your school social networks and newsletters.
